

CENTER OF EXCELLENCE

Figure 1: STEAM Building

Figure 2: Current Situation of The Excellence Center

Figure 3: Current Situation of The Excellence Center

The Excellence Center of Automation at Royal University of Phnom Penh have completed 2nd step by finishing the electricity renovation and installing necessities equipment for the function of the center. The 3 phase electrical outset is installed to connected to PCL machine if needed. 10 desk (1 for lecturer and the rest for students) and 19 chairs are installed so that the center can accommodate 18 students. A projector was installed on the ceiling to project display for teaching and learning. 8 high-performance computers were also purchased and installed.

Figure 1: Desk and chairs are installed before PC arrived

Figure 2: Setup & install computer

Figure 3: PCs are being installed

The Excellence Center of Automation at Royal University of Phnom Penh have sent 4 staff (3 Professor and 1 Technician) to joined Asean-Factori 4.0 training program in Grenoble, France from 30st January – 12th February 2022. During the 2 weeks training on industry 4.0/PLC our Royal University of Phnom Penh staff have done an excellent work on taking note and participation during the training.

