

Seminar II

The computer course have been organized yearly from November-July (academic year) with lecturing and lab class by lecturer of the faculty, the content of course is composed of different office tool and also including MySQL lesson for students. The same course have been organized in other faculties of UHS by lecturers and labs. The photos below show the computer course at computer room (the number of student in the room is around 25-30 students in each class).

